1. The Bulgarian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has the following five geographical sections:
 - a. The USSR.
 - b. Popular Democracies.
 - c. Western Europe.
 - d. Yugoslavia, Turkey, and Greece.
 - e. All other countries.
2. In March 1950 a Legal Advisor was appointed to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, although no separate department was set up at that time. The Legal Advisor was available to all departments requiring his assistance. The types of problems handled included the relationship of Bulgaria with United Nations subsidiary bodies, ownership of property of Bulgarian missions abroad, and ownership of real estate of foreign diplomatic missions in Bulgaria. At a reorganization subsequent to May 1951, a full Legal Department, with a staff of approximately ten persons, was set up.
